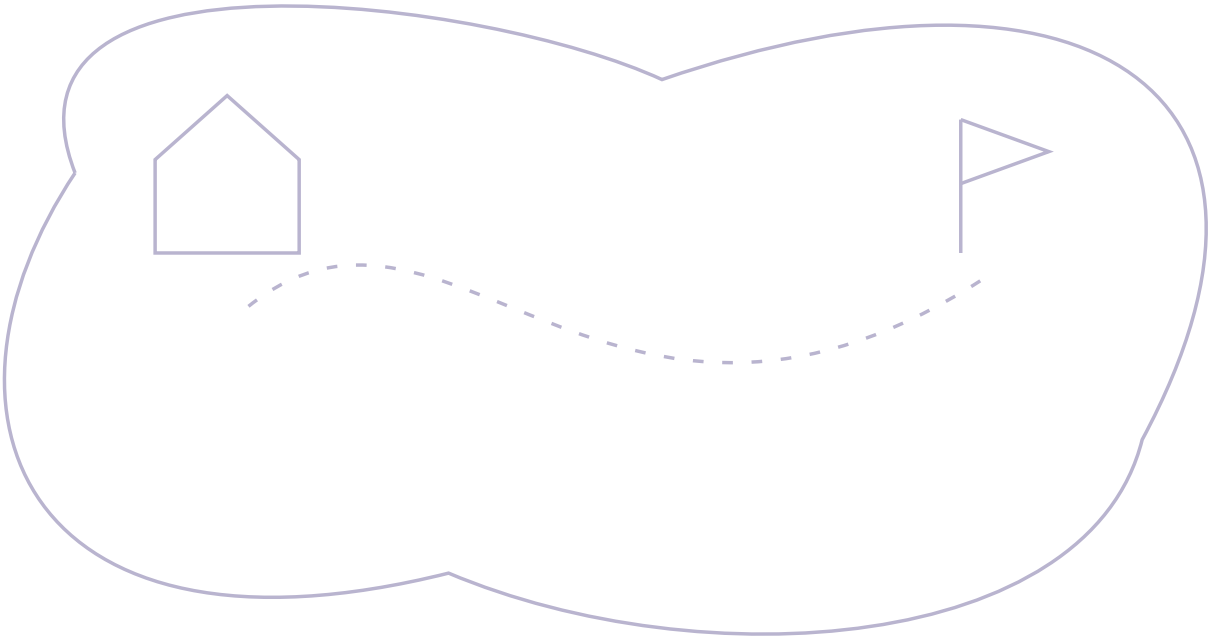
My little imaginary island

Draw a house, a path and a surprise on your island.



Our island's name

What can we find here?

Try it together

1. Draw an island and turn the shapes into your own places.
2. One person is a visitor and chooses a destination.
3. The other points out or describes the route, then swap roles.

Choose a name for your island together.